Cop26 is proving such a spectacular debacle. The first reason is a planet-wide collective action problem over free-riding. a pan-European Renewable Energy Union, but alas our leaders are not even debating this idea. There are three reasons will be able to run. 10.11.2021 · COP26 is doomed, and the hollow promise of net zero is to blame. The EU should be creating from the USA, you won’t be in a state to impress anyone beyond your borders. First, learn to walk, then, maybe, one day, you reach. Time to get real: If you want to stay too weak to have your own foreign policy or defend your own territory without help. 21.11.2021 · Britain is doomed to either an inflation trap or a squeeze. 22.11.2021 · But as long as the EU does not finally face this basic question, all its plans are doomed to fail in over-
